1 Record number of Christmas trees

2 Students shine at reading competition

3 Christmas celebration for children
 Manipal Hospitals Klang staff and Team Abacus @ AIA premium policyholders celebrating Christmas with the children of Persatuan Kebajikan Rakan Lutheran Selangor. Twenty-seven children from the welfare home were treated to a day of fun at the hospital in Bukit Tinggi, with dance performances, games and a Christmas luncheon. The children, aged three to 15 years, received gifts and goodie bags as well as stationery for the new school year.

4 Festive fun at the mall
