1 Most Popular Graduate Employer in Insurance
Great Eastern Life senior vice-president and head of human capital Dennis Tan (right) receiving an award from Group GTI Ltd founder and international group director Adnan Wood at the annual Malaysia's 100 Leading Graduate Employers Awards Night. Great Eastern Life Assurance (M) Bhd bagged the award for 'Most Popular Graduate Employer in Insurance' for the eighth time. The event, organised by GTI Media, was held at Connexion Conference & Event Centre, The Vertical in Kuala Lumpur. The win was a result of votes gathered from 25,000 students and fresh graduates from various universities nationwide via the Malaysia Graduate Barometer. Malaysia's 100 Leading Graduate Employers is the largest and longest recruitment award in the country.

2 Driving academic excellence
Supercar owners from the Lamborghini, Porsche and Ferrari clubs in Malaysia marking a special moment with 30 children who scored flying colours in this year's UPSR exam. The children won the experience through an activity initiated by radio station TH9 Raaga, where they were given a joyride in luxury vehicles to the Dash Box Hotel in Cyberjaya. They were also treated to a breakfast spread at the hotel and given gifts for their academic excellence.

3 Fun night out for media
Sunsuria Bhd chief executive officer Koong Wai Seng (in red) taking a wifeie with members of the media. The property developer held a Media Appreciation Night at Nicemann 1940s By Lewro, Starling Mall in Damansara Uptown, Petaling Jaya, to thank the media for their continuous support. They had an enjoyable time as they were treated to dinner, lucky draw, music and stand-up comedy performances as well as the chance to customise their passport holders. In Koong's speech, he thanked the media and said the company would continue to be one of the best developers in Malaysia.

4 Spreading early Christmas cheer
Christmas came early for 30 children from Pralse Emmanuel and Rumah Charis as OSK Foundation volunteers spent time with them at Atria Shopping Gallery in Petaling Jaya. They decorated 10 Christmas trees from the 'Adopt a Christmas Tree' charity campaign and even played their favourite indoor games at the mall. Through the foundation's Gifts of Hope initiative, OSK employees fulfilled the children's wishes by giving them school uniforms, shoes, sports equipment and bookstore gift vouchers. The foundation also made a contribution towards the operational expenditure of the homes.

5 Three decades of success
